1. Communist authorities recently instructed the Central and South China Military District to eliminate all guerrilla bands within its jurisdictional area. The Central and South China Military District authorities, in turn, have appointed Chief of Staff CHAO Erh-lu (趙爾陸) and Director of the Political Department TAO Chu (陶鑄) to draw up a plan of action and to supervise its execution by the various provincial military districts.
2. The Central and South China Military District decided that the suppression of guerrillas should take precedence over implementation of the land reform. In early September CHAO Erh-lu, TAO Chu and their staff left Hankow for Canton, where they will instruct the heads of the Kwangtung Military District concerning their responsibilities in this matter.
